

Inviting School.....

The GSSI project team invites you to be part of this pioneering initiative. We welcome you on the project and seek your support to implement the structural and non-structural recommendations provided by experts, to annually review and if necessary modify the SDMP and to contribute and share experiences through the school safety network.